Pulitzer Winner

Hindu Dancers Come Up With Some Surprises
By LOUIS B. GUZIO

Arts and Entertainment Times
Before the end of the month, the inescapable East Coast will be filled with Pulitzer Prize winners. Fair City is a result of works by established and emerging playwrights. The play will run through May 16, at the Fair City Theatre. The Pulitzer Prize is a celebration of the work of the Fair City Theatre. The theatre has been a leader in the field of American theatre for over 50 years. The Pulitzer Prize is awarded to works that are both artistic and socially relevant. The theatre has produced a number of Pulitzer Prize-winning plays, including some of the most successful works in the history of the American theatre.

Films Series Will Open
At Library Tonight

A series of complimentary films will open in the library tonight. The films will be shown in the library’s collection of over 1,000 subject albums. Each of the weekly programs will be shown twice, at 6:30 and 8:30 Friday evenings, at the library’s discretion.

Concert Set for Sunday
At Museum

The fifth concert in the series of concerts at the Museum is set for Sunday. The concert will feature a program of classical music and will be conducted by the director of the symphony orchestra. The concert will take place in the museum’s main hall, which is renowned for its acoustics and architectural beauty.

Water Color Exhibition
To Open at Frye Museum

An exhibition of 36 paintings from the American Watercolor Society’s annual juried exhibition will be shown at the Frye Museum. The paintings, which were selected from the entries, are representative of the highest quality work being done in the medium today. The exhibition will be on view from October 7 to November 15.

Film

PLAYHOUSE READING: Theodore Buehler, Pulitzer winner, was in residence at the University of Washington, and will read from his works at a World’s Fair program October 14 at the Seattle Art Museum and the University of Washington. The program will include readings of some of his works and an informal session with the audience.

BROWN TO HAVE ONE-MAN SHOW

The Brown Library will present a one-man show of paintings by Brown, a local artist, on October 8. The show will feature works in a variety of media, including watercolor, oil, and pastel. The exhibition will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

PLASTICS IN COLOURED GLASS AND STAINED GLASS

An exhibition of plastic objects created by students in the Puget Sound region will be held at the museum. The exhibition will feature works in a variety of media, including glass, metal, and ceramic. The exhibition will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

MUSIC

The Seattle Symphony Orchestra will present a concert at the Seattle Center on October 14. The program will feature works by Mozart, Beethoven, and Brahms.

THEATRE

The Seattle Repertory Theatre will present a new production of "A Streetcar Named Desire" on October 15. The cast includes many of the city’s most talented actors. The production will run through October 19.

FILM

The Seattle Film Society will present a series of films from October 16 to November 15. The series will include works by a variety of directors, including Hitchcock, Eisenstein, and Fellini.

We are pleased to announce the opening of the new exhibition at the Frye Museum. This exhibition, "Water Color Exhibition," features works by some of the most accomplished artists working in the medium today. The exhibition is open to the public from October 7 to November 15.

The Frye Museum is committed to showcasing the best in art and culture. We are proud to present this exhibition, which highlights the talent and creativity of contemporary artists.

Please join us for this special event and enjoy the stunning works on display. The exhibition is free to the public and will be on view from October 7 to November 15.